An Evening of Vintage Fashion

Newcastle & Mourne Cancer Research has organised an evening of vintage fashion on Saturday 2nd October at 7.30pm in Mourne Golf Club, Golf Links Road, Newcastle.

“Living Vintage” presents an evening of authentic 1940s and 1950s fashion and accessories, with light refreshment in an atmosphere of fun and nostalgia.

Tickets (£10) available from Newcastle & Mourne C.R. Group (028 4372 4201) or from Bridget on 028 4488 1505/ 07771888641

A Brief History of Art – Ulster Museum

This has already started but there may be an opportunity to join. It takes place weekly from 11-12 am on Tuesday 21st September till 23rd November.

The blurb says “Have you ever wondered what “Baroque” and “Rococo” mean? Do you doubt the Impressionists really starved in garrets? Are you a little vague about egg tempera, gouache and impasto (how do you cook them anyway?). If so, then this could be the course for you.”

The cost is £50 or £40 concession. To enrol phone 028 9044 0017.

Terrains Tamed – Ulster Museum

A series of 6 lectures is being held at the Ulster Museum, weekly from 11th October, 7.30-8.45 pm. The lecturer will be Dr Paul Lyle who will take “a holistic approach” to exploring the terrains of Northern Ireland, their changes and relationships with human developments.

This is free but you have to sign up as numbers are limited to 200 (170 already booked). Phone Marianne on 028 9039 5240.

National Trails Day – Sunday 3rd October

Over 55 free activity events are taking place throughout Northern Ireland on Sunday 3rd October. The National Trust and the Forest Service are waiving fees for the day so everything is free. The events include numerous special walks including a Archaeology & Heritage Trek in Divis & Black mountain and an Autumn Fungi & Fruit Ramble in Saintfield.
