

How Group

Group Leader: Jenny Coburn

Next event: - Monday 19th and Tuesday 20th March visits to BBC

These will use public transport and there should be no cost for the tours.

On both days members should arrive at the BBC (opposite The Holiday Inn on Ormeau Avenue) @ 11.50am. Wait in the reception area for tour starting at 12noon. On Monday Nuala will issue tickets to those who have requested which is currently 17. On Tuesday I will issue tickets to 19 who are on the list. The tour lasts approx. 1hr and lunch arrangements can be discussed afterwards if required. Update of arrangements at monthly meeting on Monday 27th February 2012

Past events

Nov 11 Visit to Hilden Brewery where we learned not just about the process of brewing beer but also about the problems of marketing independent beers in an industry which is dominated by the big companies.

Oct 11

Eddie, our unforgettable guide to Cooley distillery in the barrel which he saved from a fate as a henhouse. This was an unforgettable day out, with a talk, tasting and buffet.

Sept 11 Visit to Loughry College to learn about the food industry, how new products are developed and how important the correct packaging can be.

The group

This group will be a combination of visits and discussions/ talks about how things work or how they are done. Dates will probably have to be flexible to suit the hosts.

Suggestions so far:

- Talk about the Strangford Lough generator
- Talk about how a golf course is maintained

- Visit to a sweet factory in Belfast
- Visit to a crisp factory in Armagh
- Visit to an organic farm
- Talk about how to start an integrated school
- Talk or visit to a recycling centre
- And lots more.....
